

VRS was another tool that fell down from the heaven. It turned to be a vital and cherished tool that we, the Deaf community, use in our lives today. Besides Telephone Device for the Deaf (TDD) and text pagers, VRS is another way to prevent more communication barriers. It is very important to Deaf people that we have this as much as it is for hearing people to have cell phones. Don't leave us out.